

1 we retain the archaic Comptroller.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Della.

3 DELEGATE DELLA: Mr. Chairman, I would like to 4 argue against the amendment.

5 Somehow or other, we have forgotten all about the
6 public. With all the forms that have been printed, and all
7 the nameplates that have been painted on buildings and doors,
8 which would have to be painted over again with a new printing,
9 I am sure it would cost in the neighborhood of about $25,000.
10 I can understand wanting a modern Constitution, but I am sure
11 the people I represent are very much interested in $25,000
12 or more that would be thrown down the drain if this amend-
13 ment is adopted.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Case.

15 DELEGATE CASE: No questions.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bamberger.

17 DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Would Delegate Stern yield
18 to a question?

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Stern.

20 DELEGATE STERN: Yes.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bamberger.
